

Using Canvas to Enrich Your Class

Presented by Stanford's Canvas transition team
Orientation for Teaching Assistants, September 18, 2015

1. Introduction (2 min)
2. Watch "The Cool Things You Can Do with Canvas" by Instructure (2 min)
3. Watch "The Canvas Teaching & Learning Experience: Assignments" by Stanford's Canvas transition team (5 min)
4. Work with Canvas features: (26 min)
 - a. Organization using Modules
Related Resources:
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//55575-what-are-modules>
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//67950-what-are-outcomes>
 - b. Communication and the Calendar
Related resources:
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//40323-how-do-notification-preferences-work>
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//54668-what-is-the-calendar-for-instructors>
 - c. Providing Feedback
Related resources:
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//55016-what-is-speedgrader>
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//39716-what-is-a-rubric>
 - d. Leveraging Analytics
Related resources:
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//66789-what-are-analytics-for-my-course>
 - e. Facilitating Peer Interaction and Collaboration
Related resources:
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//40312-what-are-discussions-for-instructors>
 - <https://teachingcommons.stanford.edu/teaching-talk/getting-started-online-discussion-forums>
 - <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4152//55281-what-are-collaborations>
5. Q&A and Evaluations (15 min)